Where it all began...

Aubrey started learning guitar when he was seven years old and was performing in bands by the time he was thirteen. Unlike many of today's fast-track 'singers', Aubrey has worked his way up the ladder, experiencing every possible style of music, venue and audience along the way. So he knows a thing or two about making every live performance count! Aubrey joined his first 'proper' band when he was seventeen and as well as his work as a solo singer he still performs with that very same band - The Watchmen.

He is a larger than life vocalist who controls every show with his awe-inspiring voice and in-between-song banter. Aubrey has entertained audiences nationwide numerous prestigious events and has performed live to audiences of over 8.5 million viewers on a number of national TV shows; but he is equally at home in a small pub, club, hotel, and has even been known to perform in a few living-rooms across the UK! In addition to his amazing voice, Aubrey is also an actor; in addition to his West End performances, he can frequently be seen on television shows such as Gavin and Stacey, Casualty, Dr. Who, Torchwood and in a number of recent cinema releases including 'The Duchess' and 'Mr. Nice'. His client list includes; The BBC, ITV, Buena Vista Distribution, BFBS, all the UK banks, Butlins, Brains Breweries, Hard Rock Café, Chicago Rock, WRU and numerous International Hotel chains including DeVere, Marriott, Hilton, Rocco Forte and Principle-Haley hotels. He has also performed on a number of ships including; HMS Warrior, HMS Belfast, The Princess Caroline and The Seren Y Bae. Aubrey offers an incredible power packed performance for audiences of all ages and tastes, with high quality sound, lighting and visuals that can be tailored for all occasions and venue sizes. Requests are most welcome; Aubrey can sing whatever song is asked for – no matter what the style.

With over 5500 songs at his disposal it's no wonder they call him the 'Human Jukebox'. Aubrey believes in musical perfection. Only the best will do for his audiences.

Not just a singer...

Aubrey is also a songwriter, presenter, master of ceremonies, published writer and actor. He has appeared in various television and film productions including Gavin & Stacey, Casualty, Dr. Who, Torchwood, The Duchess, Mr. Nice, Skins, Abrahams point, Pobl Y Cwm, Caerdydd plus many others.
